Sheriff Taylor Announces Scholarship Program for High School Seniors

Pueblo, CO: Pueblo County Sheriff Kirk M. Taylor announced today the County Sheriffs of Colorado, Inc. (CSOC) will award a $1,000 scholarship to a deserving local high school senior. CSOC, the state Sheriff's Association, established the scholarship program in 1978. Since then, this effort has continued as a meaningful expression of the sheriff's confidence in and respect for education and training. CSOC considers this an investment in the future and believes the membership provides deserving students with an opportunity to make a positive contribution to society.

The scholarship application is available on the Pueblo County Sheriff's Office website at www.pueblosheriff.com. Completed applications can be dropped off at the Pueblo County Sheriff's Office, 909 Court Street, or at the Pueblo County Sheriff's substation in Pueblo West, 320 E. Joe Martinez Boulevard. Applications can also be mailed to Yvette Robinson, 320 E. Joe Martinez Blvd., Pueblo West CO. 81007. The application deadline is February 26.

Taylor said this is the 43rd year the County Sheriffs of Colorado has made such scholarships available to deserving students. A scholarship will be awarded in more than 30 Colorado counties this year. Applications will be reviewed by a local citizens' committee appointed by Sheriff Taylor. The recipient will be selected based on criteria established by CSOC to include leadership, merit, character and involvement and career purpose. Any legal permanent resident of Pueblo County enrolled in or applying to a vocational training program or institution of higher learning in Colorado as a full- or part-time student is eligible to apply. There are no restrictions as to the course of study or training which may be pursued and no restrictions are placed upon applications by reason of race, creed, age, sex or national origin.
